In some Guantanamo cell

stews a Solzhenitsyn. He will tell on us,finally. Living out his days not in some verdant Vermont or lionizing city but in a desert where ideas can mean survival.